History

The Saban Theatre was built in 1930 and is a historic landmark in Beverly Hills. The theater was the “Fox Wilshire Theatre” until the early 2000s when it was remodeled, and through a large donation from billionaire Heim Saban, the building got a new name in his honor.

For the last 15 years Sterling Venue Ventures has been the operator of the theater, and brought in celebrity names for concerts, speakers, film shoots, and screenings/premiers. Famous film shoots include the “Comedy Central Roast of Alec Baldwin,” and three years as home to Fox’s annual Christmas special “White Hot Holidays.”

Saban Theatre Remodel

Our dressing rooms were gutted and remodeled in 2019 and are extremely high end, and the lobby is just completing a million dollar remodel to restore it to its original 1930 glory. We are home to several international concerts each year, as well as famous musical acts such as Pat Benetar, Frankie Valli, Kenny Loggins, the Temptations, and many more.

The lobby can handle galas of up to 1000, or sit down weddings/mitzvahs or fundraisers up to 400. Located on Wilshire Blvd. there is a new subway station being built in front of our building, and opening Jan. 2025 that will link us to all of LA with convenient and inexpensive public transit. The Saban is the perfect venue for your event to really stand out with a glamorous red carpet type Beverly Hills night out for your guests.
